

Archiving and Preservation Workshop for Hispanic Heritage Month

October 8th at 1:00 p.m., Virtual

Are you concerned about the preservation of your old papers, photographs, or even files on your computer? How can you ensure that this material will be around for future generations?

Attend to hear Librarian for Latin American Studies, Martha Mantilla discuss the importance of preserving the history of Latin American communities. Librarians from Archives & Special Collections will also give tips to help you preserve your own personal records for years to come.

Feel free to bring a scrapbook, photograph, letter, or other important item from your own collections to share with other attendees on screen!

Register at calendar.pitt.edu/event/archiving\_and\_preservation

Materials pictured here come from the Jorge Luis Borges Manuscript Collection, the Ramón Gómez de la Serna Papers, the Julio Elizalde Papers, and the Nicolás Guillén Collection, ULS Archives & Special Collections.
